Hi Natalya,

Thanks so much for the chat. I really appreciate you returning my call.

For your information, here are the media lines that we're currently sharing with reporters when specifically asked about the deployment of RCMP resources to Windsor for the protest. If you happen to receive any questions from reporters about this, please refer them to RCMP O Division Media Relations at: media.relations.rcmp-Ontario-relations.medias.grc@rcmp-grc.gc.ca and we'll respond.

Media Lines:

As a national police organization, the RCMP can draw resources from across the country in support of major operational needs to effectively respond to any urgent situation as required.

The RCMP will be providing assistance to the Windsor Police Service, who continue to hold the operational lead and jurisdiction in regards to the ongoing demonstrations at the Ambassador Bridge. RCMP members from O Division are currently being deployed to assist with this effort.

The RCMP is fully committed to providing the Windsor Police Service with the support required to ensure the safety and security of residents and visitors at the Ambassador Bridge.

To ensure the safety of our members and of the public, we do not disclose information pertaining to the specific number of members engaged, their locations, nor operational or tactical details.

For additional questions related to operational and enforcement plans for the demonstrations, please contact the Windsor Police Service.

We have been referring to you as the police of jurisdiction for other details and if you'd like to provide me with your Twitter handle, I can provide this to reporters when referring them to you.

Let me know if you have any questions and feel free to stay in touch.

Thanks,
Kerrie
